- We will organise intervention sessions for your child where and when we feel that this is needed to help them reach the highest possible grades.
- We will acknowledge a pupil's effort and commitment through the school's reward programme.

- We will check home learning regularly in lessons where it has been set.
- We promise to welcome parents into the school community and offer support where we can.

Sacred Heart Catholic School Home-School Contract

- We reserve the right to confiscate any item from a pupil that contravenes our school policy and search pupils if we believe that items in their possession might cause harm to others or to themselves.

No Behaviour Policy or Home School Contract can cover all eventualities. The Principal reserves the right to help Sacred Heart Catholic school pupils make better choices and learn the right lessons.
