

Family

All families are special, different in many ways.
Filled with loving people, who look after you everyday.

Fathers and mothers,
sisters and brothers,
uncles and aunts
grandpas and nanies.

We may argue or fight,
hit or curse
but families always reunite to make sure things don't grow worse.

Family is forever.
We share the pain and get through it together, leaving no one in disdoin.

Eliar

Even when we're far apart or when our time runs out, family will still fill my heart, marching loud and proud.
